

WEEKLY REPORT
Air Division
Environmental Protection Agency
Region 9
Week Ending November 11, 2016

Significant Items for Last Week (November 7 – November 11)

Monitoring Network Plans: During the week of November 7, we approved sixteen monitoring agencies' Annual Monitoring Network Plans. Each year, air monitoring agencies are required to submit monitoring network plans to EPA that describe their ambient air monitoring networks and any recent or proposed changes, and also address compliance to monitoring regulations. (Contact: Michael Flagg, 7-3372)

Exceptional Events Workshop: On November 8-9, EPA and Western States Air Resources Council hosted a workshop in Denver, to present information about the revised Exceptional Events Rule and implementation to state and local agencies. (Contact: Michael Flagg, 2-3372; Anna Mebust, 2-3265)

Hydrogen and Fuel Cells Panel: As part of the Hydrogen and Fuel Cells in the Ports Workshop in Wilmington, we presented to port staff and terminal operators on government programs involving hydrogen fuel cells in the ports and current funding opportunities. (Contact: Francisco Dóñez, 4-1834)
